COREY AND WIFE LIKELY TO MEET AND MAKE PEACE

Steel Trust President's Relatives Hope to Stop Divorce Action.

SPEED TO PITTSBURG

Mrs. Corey on Way from California and Husband Goes from New York.

pecial to The Evening World.) PITTSBURG, Dec. 20 .- An unusually large Chrismas tree is being arranged at the home of Alfred J. Corey, of Braddock, father of William Ellis Corey, President of the United States Steel Corporation, and from the extreme limits of the American continent the son and daughter-in-law are hurrying to Pittsburg for the Christmas season, which will mean so much or so little to both.

That a reconciliation between Mr Corey and his wife is now in view is the opinion held by the host of friends of both. The news of Mrs. Corey leav ing Los Angeles for Pittsburg, accompanied by Miss Ada Corey, the younges elster of W. E. Corey, and at the same time, the information that the mission of Alfred J. Corey, the father, to New York to hold a conference with his son and effect a reconciliation was not in vain, has been made the foundation of the belief that at the Christmas season a strong effort will be made to heal the breach between the couple.

During the last week powerful influences have been at work to patch up the trouble. Mrs. Frank Campbell, of Ewissvale, the mother of Mrs. Corey, has stated that she expected her daughter to be with her during Christmas. It is said that Mrs. Campbell on her part has been untiring in her efforts to have Mrs. Corey change her views, and at the same time Alfred J. Corey and his wife have been equally as active in talking to their son in their effort for These two factors are taken among those in close touch with the Corey family that within the next ten days the "Corey breach" will be healed. It is stated that a conference be tween the relatives, friends and the

Suddenly the kitten escaped and ran across the street with the child in purbuit. She was struck by one of the horses and fell directly in front of the wheels, one of which passed over her.

The mother screamed out from the window on the floor above as did all the other women in the house and a scene of wild excitement followed. The little one was taken from beneath the cart and Dr. Lewis, from Bellevue, restored her to commotousness, after which she was taken away. The kitten was back in the house within a few minultes.
